PRESS RELEASE

Marco Island French Restaurant Invites Families to Thanksgiving

(Marco Island, FL) – Leave the cutting, stirring and baking to someone else this holiday and focus the most important holiday attraction - family.

The quiet, family style environment at Bistro Soleil on Marco Island, Florida will be an inviting change for those eating out on Thanksgiving. The French restaurant is hosting its fourth annual Thanksgiving feast on Thursday, Nov. 22 from 12:30 p.m. to 6:30 p.m.

"With so many of our seasonal residents here preparing their homes before they leave for the holidays or our year round residents who may want to leave the spatula work to someone else will enjoy our fabulous Thanksgiving feast," said Lisa Meurgue, Bistro Soleil owner.

Dripped in the flavors of the season, the menu lineup looks to be mouth watering. French trained chef Denis Meurgue, also co-owner of the bistro, will be serving Maine lobster bisque, smoked salmon, rotisserie turkey and Virginia ham all complete with traditional and more gourmet style Thanksgiving options.

"Our Thanksgiving feast buffet is always popular, because you can try the oldies but goodies like Turkey and my personal favorite the honey cornbread and finish with our gourmet desserts," Meurgue said.

While other restaurants charge upwards of $50 per person for Thanksgiving dinner, Bistro Soleil is running a deal for Thanksgiving 2012. Dining fees are $39.95 for adults, $14.95 for children ages six to 12 and children under five years old eat free. The Bistro Soleil is a member of The Collection at Olde Marco a retail, hotel and restaurants destination on Marco Island.

The restaurant is located at 100 Palm St., Marco Island, Fla. To make reservations for Bistro Soleil's Thanksgiving celebration, customers are asked to call (239) 389-0981.
